Blue Health Intelligence Named to CIOReview's 50 Most Promising Healthcare Solution Providers 2016

November 30, 2016

FREMONT, CA—Blue Health Intelligence announced today that it has been recognized as one among the top 50 healthcare solution providers of 2016 by CIOReview.

Blue Health Intelligence builds exceptional predictive models, supporting care management, identifying at-risk patients and determining appropriate levels of care and effective disease management programs. BHI's predictive analytics capabilities can even identify patient risk factors for rare conditions that have eluded other organizations, allowing clients to proactively address those factors. Just as exciting, these actionable insights ultimately help raise quality standards and manage rising healthcare costs.

"It's a great honor to select Blue Health Intelligence as one of the 50 Most Promising Healthcare Solution Providers 2016," said Jeevan George, Managing Editor of CIOReview. "Blue Health Intelligence \(BHI\) is applying proven predictive modeling and comprehensive research, in combination with our vast and growing database, to produce findings that can improve healthcare decision making."
